Section 2: Your request for appeal

2a) The decision you are appealing against.

Please state the decision you are appealing against
Title and / or code of module (s) and/or examination (s) concerned.
Date the decision was communicated to you

2b) You may only appeal against a decision if you can show on a balance of probabilities that you satisfied one or more of the three grounds in Section A, paragraph 4 of the Regulations Governing Academic Appeals by Students.

Please confirm on which of the grounds you are basing your appeal:

That you possess new substantive information supported by evidence which was not known by you and/or the evidence could not reasonably have been obtained by you in time to present to the first board or panel of the University which made the original decision.
That there has been significant failure of due process in the making of the original decision (including but not limited to irregularity in the procedures of the University or significant computational or administrative errors of fact in results published), which you believe affected the University's original decision.
That your performance had been adversely affected by illness or by other factors (e.g. family crisis) which, in exceptional circumstances, you were unable or for valid reason unwilling to disclose to the University before it made its decision .

Section 1: About you

- Student ID enter your University ID number which can be found on your ID card
- Name enter your full name
- Address for correspondence Address you wish to be contacted at
- Telephone contact enter all telephone numbers we may use to contact you e.g. Home, mobile/cell
- Email contact Ideally this will be your university email address
- Faculty- enter the name of the Faculty you are enrolled to study in
- Year of study enter the year you are currently in e.g. 1st, 2nd
- Programme of study enter the title of the course you are studying
- Date you first enrolled on your programme of study enter the month and year e.g. October 2007 in which you started your course
- Year of regulations under which appeal is made Please tick to confirm if you are using the current appeal regulations, or those in force at the time you first registered. As explained in the Student Handbook, each year the University reviews and improves its regulations in order to provide clear robust procedures which are student centred with the intention that all appeals will be processed according to the regulations which have been approved for the current year. You may apply to use the Appeal Regulations in force when you first registered for your programme only if you can demonstrate that you will be substantially disadvantaged by having to use the current Appeal Regulations.
- If not using current regulations please explain substantial disadvantage If you are using the current regulations then leave this box blank. If you are using the regulations in force at the time you registered, you must explain here why you believe you would be substantially disadvantaged by using the current regulations

Section 2: Your request for appeal – Grounds for Appeal

2a) The decision you are appealing against

- Please state the decision you are appealing against e.g. termination of registration
- Please state the type (e.g. Upgrade from MPhil to PhD) title (e.g. Research Methods) and / or module code (e.g. BIOL 2016) associated with the assessment which has been affected
- Please confirm the date that the decision was first communicated to you
- 2b) You may only appeal against a decision if you can show on a balance of probabilities that you satisfy one or more of the three grounds in Section A, paragraph 4 of the Regulations Governing Academic Appeals by Students.

Please tick the box next to the ground(s) under which you are appealing

In the next pages you must give more detail about the ground(s) you are appealing on

If you are appealing on the grounds that:

- You possess new substantive information supported by evidence which was not known by you and/or the evidence could not reasonably have been obtained by you in time to present to the first board or panel of the University which made the original decision.- complete page 3
- That there has been significant failure of due process in the making of the original decision (including but not limited to irregularity in the procedures of the University or significant computational or administrative errors of fact in results published), which you believe affected the University's original decision.- complete page 4

That your performance had been adversely affected by illness or by other factors (e.g. family crisis) which you can demonstrate, in exceptional circumstances, you were unable or for valid reason unwilling to disclose to the University before it made its decision.

Please sign the form to declare that the information you have given is true to the best of your knowledge and that you are willing to answer further questions relating to it if necessary.

Further information about where to send this form can be found in Appendix E of the Regulations Governing Academic Appeals by Students
